

Another Cattaraugus County Employee "Retire's"

Cattaraugus County Attorney Thomas Brady will be retiring from his position at the end of the month. This is just one more in the long line of county employees who have announce departure from county government.

I wonder what they know that most of the people in the county don't?

Brady revealed his intentions this week in a letter to Legislature Chairman Norman Marsh, R-Little Valley, and County Clerk James K. Griffith. His replacement designee is Mark Howden.

For full story see buffalo news article - click here