The family of Fr. Joe Moreno says evidence shows that death wasn't a suicide. Files and....

...money missing, crime scene photos appear to be staged. Family maintains he was going to blow the whistle on something... His family believes it was murder, they found letters addressed to the Bishop concerning two priests who were alleged to be molesting children and it appears that checks were forged in his name... Fr. Joe was also assigned to the Catholic Church in Cattaraugus and his 'suicide' came as a surprise to many who knew him.. _____

Father Moreno, a Catholic priest for 26 years who was known for helping the poor, the sick, the elderly, and children, was found dead in the rectory of his parish, Saint Lawrence Church on East Delavan Ave., on Oct. 13, 2012. A police investigation has ruled his death a suicide a death even though there was no note found and his family believes he was not suicidal and may have been the victim of foul play.
