

QUOTES

"If you will not fight for right when you can easily win without blood shed; if you will not fight when your victory is sure and not too costly; you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance of survival. There may even be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no hope of victory, because it is better to perish than to live as slaves." Winston Churchill

"In a time of universal deceit - telling the truth is a revolutionary act." George Orwell

"All that is needed for the forces of evil to triumph is for enough good men to do nothing."
Edmund Burke

"In the beginning of a change the patriot is a scarce man, and brave, and hated and scorned. When his cause succeeds, the timid join him, for then it costs nothing to be a patriot." Samuel Langhorne Clemens

"There is no more dangerous menace to civilization than a government of incompetent, corrupt, or vile men and women" Ludwig Von Mises

"Honor never grows old, and honor rejoices the heart of age. It does so because honor is, finally, about defending those noble and worthy things that deserve defending, even if it comes at a high cost. In our time, that may mean social disapproval, public scorn, hardship, persecution, or as always, even death itself. The question remains: What is worth defending? What is worth dying for? What is worth living for?" - William J. Bennett - In a lecture to the United States Naval Academy - November 24, 1997

"If you want to protect your rights, you've got to protect the rights of others. Social justice is common sense." Edward Snowden

Brilliant people talk about ideas, average people talk about things, small people talk about each other.
